NEWS

- EIPEN 2015 CONFERENCE: CALL FOR ABSTRACTS. The registration and submission of proposals for the EIPEN Conference in Nijmegen (The Netherlands) 26-28 August 2015 is now open. The theme is Bridging the gap between education and practice. Keynote speakers are Sarah Hean and Scott Reeves. The conference will also include site visits to innovative learning centres. In previous conferences more than 20% of the attendees came from outside of Europe. All information is available at the EIPEN website www.eipen.eu
- Walking alongside:" collaborative practices in mental health and substance use care. Although the importance of collaboration is well established as a principle in research and in theory, what it actually means for practitioners to collaborate in practice, to be partners in a collaborative relationship, has thus far been given less attention. The aim of this study was to identify key characteristics of the ways in which mental health practitioners collaborate with service users and their families in practice. - Ethics and Professionalism in Health Care. Backgrounds, Frameworks, Challenges International conference for young scholars. Call for abstracts. The INSTITUTE FOR MEDICAL ETHICS AND HISTORY OF MEDICINE is holding a conference on the 9th–13th February 2015 in Ruhr University Bochum, Germany. New forms and structures of interprofessional co-operation have been developed in a variety of fields, such as primary care, intensive care medicine or palliative medicine. The academization of health-care professions and the emergence of new sub specialities generate a need for professional codes, legal regulations and new frameworks for health-care provision. The interdisciplinary and international conference for young scholars aims to bring together researchers from different disciplines and fields to discuss topics regarding professionalism and interprofessionalism in health care. - A date for your diaries. The NAEP annual conference will be held at Coventry University Technocentre non the 27th March 2015. Themes covered will include values based practice, IPE in practice partnership and students challenging practice. More details to follow.

RESOURCES

- Transdisciplinary interprofessional learning and practice (Ed. P. Gibbs), published by Springer. This book brings international perspectives to bear on thinking about and through transdisciplinarity on professional development and education. The scope of the book ranges from the idea of transdisciplinarity and its applications in professional practice to considerations of pedagogy and transdisciplinary research. A distinctive feature of the book is its consideration of key issues and concepts in the context of the lived experience of transdisciplinarity. The book effectively demonstrates how a transdisciplinary lens on the world can open one's eyes to multiple realities and thus suggests how we might better understand the complexities and contradictions of our world. Indeed the chapters carry transdisciplinarity into new fields, on fresh grounds and even move into a post-disciplinary phase.
