

CAIPE e-Bulletin Issue 38 – January 2015

Welcome to the January issue of the CAIPE e Bulletin, a monthly electronic Newsletter providing concise information and links to more in depth information, predominately on the CAIPE website www.caipe.org.uk

NEWS

- Call for papers. The John Horder Award 2015. Invitations to Interprofessional teams working within the primary health care community in the UK or abroad to submit their papers. For more information go to <http://caipe.org.uk/news/call-for-papers-john-horder-award-2015/>
- 'My wish for social care in 2015: a new funding settlement above all else' Isabelle Trowler, the director of Think Local Act Personal argues that person-centred care is vital to improving the sector. Her wishes for 2015 are that: 'we move from talk to action' 'joined-up, coordinated, personalised care and support through the Integrated Personal Commissioning (IPC) programme' and 'the opportunity to build on new relationships and partnerships between health, care, housing and beyond'. For more information go to <http://www.theguardian.com/social-care-network/2014/dec/29/isabelle-trowler-2015-big-year-social-work>
- Public health nursing and midwifery leadership transfers to PHE. New arrangements for public health nursing, midwifery and the allied health professions leadership will come into force from April 2015. The Department of Health and Public Health England (PHE) have announced that responsibility for public health nursing and midwifery leadership will transfer to PHE from April, replacing the current joint arrangement between the department and PHE. The new arrangements will make sure strong strategic direction is in place for the future. For more information go to <http://caipe.org.uk/news/public-health-nursing-and-midwifery-leadership-transfers-to-phe/>
- The Department of Health and Department for Communities and Local Government have announced new funds to kick start joint working with the NHS and Councils. The Department for Communities and Local Government has this week provided £12 million to help join up health and social care services so that there aren't delays for people who can be safely discharged and to avoid people needing to go to hospital in the first place (perhaps because of falls or flu). The money will mean up to 3,500 more people a week will get home from hospital more quickly this winter, with the local authority putting in place carers and equipment to meet their needs, freeing up much-needed hospital beds within the NHS. For more information go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/new-funds-to-kickstart-joint-working-with-nhs-and-councils-this-winter>
- RCGP launches a video animation which promotes care planning and collaborative teamwork. Patients with long term conditions, and potentially their carers, meet a care planning team based in their GP practice ahead of GP consultations. This team considers the patient's physical, mental and social care needs to draw up a plan to manage the patient's long-term care. For more information go to <http://www.gponline.com/rcgp-video-animation-backs-care-planning-approach-general-practice/article/1329914>
- Interprofessional Education: A Webinar in the USA Featuring Case Examples. The Association of Departments of Family Medicine held a webinar in September to address critical challenges of executing IPE including stakeholder buy-in; curriculum development; venues for teaching; financing; relationship management; defining roles and responsibilities of learners and teachers; and interface with regulatory bodies. The webinar featured innovative IPE case studies from 4 institutions, presented by professionals representing family medicine, pharmacy, and nursing. For more information go to <http://www.annfammed.org/content/13/1/90.full>
- NMC has published the revised Code for nurses and midwives which will come into effect on 31 March 2015. The Code contains the professional standards that nurses and midwives must uphold. They are the standards shown every day by good nurses and midwives across the UK and the Code should be seen as a way of reinforcing their professionalism. For more information go to <http://www.nmc-uk.org/The-revised-Code/>

EVENTS

- 4th National Student Conference 23rd March 2015 Centre for Professional Development , University of Birmingham. Following the success of previous years, CAIPE are pleased to announce their 4th Student Conference for 2015. The theme for the day is Working together to promote safety For more information go to <http://caipe.org.uk/news/4th-national-student-conference/>
- 7th Biennial John Horder Lecture June 17th 2015 at 17.30. Centre for the Advancement of Interprofessional Education (CAIPE) in association with the Journal of Interprofessional Care and King's College London. Venue: King's College London. Professor Ed Peile EdD, FRCP, FRCGP, FRCPC, FHEA, FAcadMed, Professor Emeritus (Medical Education) University of Warwick will speak on 'The values of interprofessionalism'. For more information go to http://caipe.org.uk/events/?event_id=181

- A date for your diaries. The NAEP annual conference will be held at Coventry University Technocentre on the 27th March 2015. Themes covered will include values based practice, IPE in practice partnership and students challenging practice. More details to follow.
- The 5th European Conference on Interprofessional Practice and Education. Bridging the Gap between education and practice in Health and Social Care. held in Nijmegen, Netherlands on the 26-28 August 2015. Hosted by the consortium of Radboud University Medical Center, HAN University of Applied Sciences Arnhem and Nijmegen, Zuyd University of Applied Sciences Heerlen, Robuust, and Jan van Es Institute. The fully detailed programme will be available by the end of June. For more information go to http://www.eipen.eu/conferences_4.html

OPPORTUNITIES

- CAIPE Student Poster Competition 2015. At this year's CAIPE Student Conference there will be an opportunity for individuals or groups to enter the CAIPE Student Poster Competition. It is open to Students members of CAIPE already registered to attend the conference. Entry categories are Undergraduate/pre-registration OR postgraduate research students. For more information go to <http://caipe.org.uk/news/--caipe-student-poster-competition-2015/>
- Call for abstracts - CAIPE Student Conference. At this year's CAIPE Student Conference there will be an opportunity for individuals or groups to submit abstracts for student presentations or workshops. It is open to Students members of CAIPE already registered to attend the conference. Entry categories are Undergraduate/pre-registration OR postgraduate research students. For more information go to <http://caipe.org.uk/news/call-for-abstracts--caipe-student-conference/>
- Join the Guardian Social Care Network. Join the community for social care professionals, an online space for the latest jobs, features and comment focusing on policy, career and work practice issues. Registration is free. For more information go to <https://register.theguardian.com/social-care/>

We are always interested in your views on the CAIPE E Bulletin. Please send your comments and website content to Debbie Holmes webmanager@caipe.org.uk