National Association of Educators in Practice (NAEP) Annual Conference

National Association of Educators in Practice (NAEP) Annual conference

21/04/2017 – The Studio, 7 Cannon Street, Birmingham, B2 5EP

'Making the case for practice education'

The NAEP conference 2017 book your place at the 2017 Conference at:

<http://naep-uk.org/conference/>

In the current changing landscape, as demands on health and social care education increase and priorities change, new challenges and opportunities present themselves. Now, perhaps more than ever, we need to ensure that practice education remains high on the agenda, evidencing innovation and quality as well as responsiveness to changes in practice and future needs. Against this backdrop partnerships and innovations in practice based learning offer a means to maintain capacity and quality and provide a focus for the 2017 conference. Therefore we are seeking poster and presentation abstracts for the following themes:

- Working in partnership to build placement capacity
- Assessment for learning in practice in a shifting landscape
- Research in practice education

We look forward to seeing you in April 2017

Call for papers for the John Horder Award 2017

Sleep and mental health in children and young people, 2 June 2017, Bristol, UK

Sleep difficulties are common in children and adolescents, especially in some high-risk groups, such as young people with developmental difficulties or mental health problems. Clinicians working in paediatric or child mental health settings need an understanding of sleep disorders, how sleep disturbance impacts on a young person's physical and cognitive development and mental health and how such disorders can be prevented and treated.

During this one-day conference the following aspects will be covered;

- The basic neurobiology of sleep including psychological and physical effects of poor sleep
- Sleep disorders and their treatment
- The use of medication in sleep disorders

1st Symposium for
INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION IN AFRICA

INVITATION AND CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

21 – 22 September 2017
University of Namibia, Windhoek, Namibia

1st Symposium for Interprofessional Education in Africa

The Africa Interprofessional Education Network (AfrIPEN) and the University of Namibia invite you to the First Symposium for Interprofessional Education in Africa.

This symposium follows the establishment of AfrIPEN in 2015 and the Network's first strategic planning workshop in 2016.

AfrIPEN's aim is to establish interprofessional education and collaborative practice (IPE) as integral part in training the health workforce and in the effective functioning of systems for health in Sub-Saharan Africa by advocating for, collaborating on, promoting and sharing good practice of IPE.

Collaboration and participation from all stakeholders are important. All participants are expected to share their experiences (whether they present an abstract or not) and learn from each other. This will not be a symposium where you can just sit back and listen. Participation is required! Accepted presentations will be posted on the www.afripen.org website.

CAIPE Board

CAIPE student reps, Stephen Garvey (dietician) and Linda Eyre (nurse) promoted CAIPE at the Western Sussex Hospitals Interprofessional Student Conference 2017 on 14th March. They spoke to many of the students from a range of professions and made some useful contacts including the Open University.

CAIPE reps Jenny Ford and Amira Chaudhry attended the Newcastle–Sunderland medicine and Pharmacy IPE conference to promote CAIPE. There was an exciting buzz at this event and we met IPE–enthusiastic students and staff; there was some lively twitter activity

#IPEConf2017.

On Wednesday 8th March 2017, the University of Lincoln hosted the CAIPE Corporate Forum 'IPE Innovation'. It was attended by Corporate members from the Universities of: Nottingham; Cardiff Metropolitan; Robert Gordon; Salford; Bournemouth; and De Montfort as well as members of the IPE team at University of Lincoln and the Lincolnshire Partnership Foundation Trust.

Mark Brennan, University of Lincoln IPE Standing Group chaired the day and provided the introduction to the programme. Professor Sue Rigby, Deputy Vice Chancellor welcomed attendees to Lincoln and clearly demonstrated senior Management commitment to the IPE Journey, reflected in 'Thinking Ahead 2016–2021', University of Lincoln Strategic Plan.

Mark Brennan and Milika Matiti presented the 'IPE Journey at Lincoln', followed by the University of Lincoln IPE team presentation on 'IPE in Three domains'. Following a delicious lunch CAIPE Board members Jenny Ford and Richard Pitt assisted Mark Brennan in facilitating discussion groups on the three themes of:

1. Meaningful Evaluation
2. Breaking Barriers
3. Interprofessional to Interdisciplinary.

Following plenary feedback and discussion we welcomed the Student Voices with representation from Adult Nursing, Mental Health Nursing and Pharmacy. The day was concluded with summary address from Richard Gray, Chair of CAIPE.

CAIPE Board Meeting on Tuesday 7th March 2017.

Key points raised were:

- Marion Huber and Juanjo Beunza have been co-opted to the board as International links.
- The IPE guidelines and a covering email have been distributed equally amongst the board members who have sent them out to their listed contacts (Non Corporate HEI's).
- Shobi Nagraj is chair of the Research group following the departure of Scott Reeves.
- CAIPE Five Year Strategic Plan was ratified by the Board, the process of identifying responsibility for implementation will now begin
- ATBHVIII Post Conference Report available on the website. This was a great success and the planning committee were commended for their work.
- World Co-ordinating Committee is exploring proposals for: administrative/secretarial support. CAIPE will submit a proposal to support for the next two years; the development of it's own website rather than hosted by Robert Gordon University.
- Pan American health organisations held a conference to promote IPE in Latin American at the end of last year. Liz Anderson attended on behalf of CAIPE. Juanjo Beunza from Madrid, also attended and proposed that CAIPE has an important role, but distance and cultural differences may prove challenging. He has offered to represent CAIPE and to assess the most effective way CAIPE could help.
- Following the presentation from the honorary fellows at the Chair's Event in November 2016 on IPE Leadership, they submitted a bid to the Leadership Foundation and have requested that CAIPE partner them in this research. The board expressed support for this initiative.

Westminster Health Forum: 'Priorities for improving patient safety in the NHS: transparency, safeguards and developing a patient-centred culture'.

On 26th January 2017 Richard Gray, Chair of CAIPE and Richard Pitt, Chair Elect attended this morning Westminster Health Forum seminar.

Chair

The 2016 All Together Better Health VIII conference was held in Oxford UK from 6-9 September 2016.

The conference was jointly hosted by CAIPE, Oxford Brookes University and the University of Oxford. The theme of the conference was Values Based Interprofessional Education and Practice.

The conference steering group has produced a post conference report. Click here where you will find a download of it.

Richard Gray, on behalf of Hugh Barr, recently visited the National University of Singapore (NUS) as a guest of the medical school. The invitation was extended to CAIPE following the 2016 All Together Health Conference which focused on Values Based Interprofessional Education and Practice. During his visit to Singapore Richard had opportunities to meet and discuss interprofessional developments with the University IPE Steering Committee, the Department of Pharmacy, the Alice Lee Centre of Nursing Studies and the Centre for Biomedical Ethics. For a full report of their time there click here

CAIPE responds to Improving Safety through Education and Training, Report by the Commission on Education and Training for Patient Safety.

CAIPE recommends this report to its members. It provides a strong steer for IPE linked directly to addressing the current concerns for patient safety. It should be used as a vehicle to propel local IPE initiatives which require the support of Health Education England especially for new projects and for educational research.
