NEWS

- In memory of Prof Ratie Mpofu. CAIPE is sad to announce the loss our esteemed colleague, Emeritus Professor Ratie Mpofu, who passed away on Saturday 19 October 2013 at the age of 68, after a long illness. Prof. Ratie Mpofu was a well respected, experienced, international academic and educator in the field of Interprofessional Education, but she will be most remembered for her warm and generous character. She will be sorely missed by the global Interprofessional Education community and we wish to pay our respects to her contribution to the field and extend our condolences to Joshua and her family. - CAIPE LETB Engagement Survey. The organisation of healthcare education is undergoing significant change at the present time. The introduction of Local Education and Training Boards (LETBs) has introduced new elements to course commissioning, planning and design. In this context, CAIPE is keen to ensure that as the changes occur the principles and practice of interprofessional education and collaborative working, which are very pertinent to present challenges in health and social care, are supported and enhanced. CAIPE invites you to participate in a short survey regarding possible communication with your local LETBs. For more information go to www.caipe.org.uk/news/caipe-letb-engagement-survey/
